Assistant SENCO
Full time
36.5 hours a week
Salary Grade 3 £19,153 - £24,608

Harborne Academy is situated in a residential suburb close to the centre of Birmingham. The Academy opened its state of the art building in October 2013. The Academy is on a journey to excellence and was judged to be good by Ofsted in June 2017.

We are currently looking for an Assistant SENCO to provide high quality SEND provision. Working under the guidance of the SENCO, you will be required to identify and assess students with SEND and develop strategies for learning. You should have a flexible approach, be able to build a rapport with staff and students and be able to work under pressure. To be successful in this role you should be a graduate with a good standard of literacy and numeracy and ideally have experience of working within a classroom setting.

Harborne Academy can offer:

- outstanding facilities in a state of the art school
- excellent professional development opportunities
- a friendly and supportive learning environment
- well behaved and self-motivated students
- excellent student/staff relationships.
